The Speaker: A daughter of a mother with a strong faith and one of five siblings, Judith grew up in County Donegal, Ireland. It was here a long-life love for God began. Judith taught primary school for twelve years and she completed a program in the Mount Oliver Institute that introduced her to: a new theology, the feminist filter and the sacred story. For 11 years, Judith worked in Dublin alongside those yearning for social justice. Judith's background includes psychotherapy and creative arts and she has enjoyed fruitful collaborations of group facilitation with religious groups. She looks forward to spending her time in NL with the Mercy~Presentation sisters, associates and friends!
