Please note new date for this event

You are invited to a Public Lecture by John McCarthy S.J. ON February 20 7:15pm- 9:15pm at the Lantern, 35 Barnes Road

This session will explore the following questions:

- What is evolution?
- Why the fuss about evolution?
- How has the Church responded?
- Does evolution rule out God's existence?
- Theology of Evolution

Rev. John McCarthy SJ, Scientist, author and Jesuit priest, John McCarthy SJ, was recipient of the 2002 Canadian Environment Awards Gold Medal (Lands and Forests category) for his work in boreal forest conservation in Newfoundland. He regularly speaks on the subject of Christian faith and ecology and publishes on lichenology as well as ecological theology and spirituality. A new lichen has been named after him - Acarospora maccarthyi K. Knudsen & Kocourk.
